

Session Seven
Walking with Christ

Celebration night...

Hey, what are you doing watching this. I told you weeks ago there is no video this week! You are supposed to be celebrating—not wasting time watching me.

Ok...If you somehow forgot to plan—then have everyone go to the nearest store together, buy ice cream or something fun for each other, and share your stories with each other.

Tell each other where you came from, how you got saved, and what your dreams are.
